Dear Mr. Prieto,

Herewith cheque in settlement of your credit note as arranged. I am sorry it is for such a small amount but I think that even if your show was not a great financial success it was an artistic one and should be of considerable benefit to you in the future.

I have been in touch with Lord Croft's house but am told that the address at Hampstead is the correct one for the Hon. Michael Croft. So far, however, we have heard nothing from him, but I understand he is extremely busy.

Yours sincerely,

A. J. McNeill Reid
