Gregorio Prieto, Esq.,

London, S.W.7.

Dear Sir,

Mr. Reid is away in Europe at the moment, but we are sure he would not mind that you include "Ecstasy before a Harp" in the book about to be published. As you own the copyright, you need not ask anyone's permission, and we would advise you to put "Exhibited at the Lefevre Gallery in 1943", for in this way you will receive the publicity, and if someone did want to buy one of your drawings, they would approach us, so that we could pass the name on to you. However, if you insist on putting the name, it is H. W. Rose, Esq., and you can go ahead with it on the above lines as soon as you like.

Yours faithfully,

ALEX REID & LEFEVRE LTD.
