Dear Mr. Prieto,

I have looked for Celeste's letter but possibly didnt keep it. She is now Mrs. Garavias, 8 r. Xanthou, Athens and her husband was attached to the N.Y. Times so no doubt that would find her.

I so enjoyed your beautiful exhibition and would like to see another side of your painting. I always like poetry and fantasy on a basis of good drawing and your style appealed to me very much.

I expect you are too busy to be social though I would be glad for you to meet my neighbour who is very good looking. But I think you have enough beautiful women in your head. I am giving a cocktail party for her next Sunday at 6.30 the 23rd. in case you would like to look in. She is to be married next week. I once introduced her to an artist who found her an excellent client (she has a charming Canadian mother) but of course I dont know if she is tired of posing! With all good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Elsa Kingston
