Dear Gregorio Prieto,

Thank you for your letter of April 11th which I should have answered before now except that I have been away from home for several days.

I shall be very pleased for you to come out here to make the drawing you write of. . . . . Could you come next Saturday ? There is a train from Liverpool Street Station at 2.25, which reaches Hadham at 3.29. I think you have to change twice on the way, at Broxbourne and St. Margarets, but about this you had better ask at the barrier at Liverpool Street. I could meet the train at Hadham station at 3.29 and bring you here by car, as we are about 2 miles from the station.

You could get back to Liverppol Street Station on a train from Bishop's Stortford at 5.51, arriving at Liverpool Street at 6.48, or there is a train from Hadham at 6.39, arriving at Liverpool Street at 7.58.

Yours sincerely,

Henry Moore

P.S. If this Saturday is not convenient for you, the following Saturday, May 6th, would also be alright for me. Perhaps you could send me a postcard, so that I will know when you will be coming.

H.M.
