My dear Ramble, -

I was delighted to have your letter and shall be ever so glad to see you at New York and make the acquaintance of your wife.

With regard to my work I just want to tell you to-day that the British Council had invited me and eventually patronised me, at an Exhibition of my work in Spain. This was a great success. When we see each other in the Autumn I shall tell you more about my recent activities.

After having found you again, I shall bother you immediately with a small matter! You will receive a small quantity of money in your name from a Mr. Harris Masterson, of HOUSTON in Texas, for a few reproductions which he owed me, and I beg you to be good enough to keep this amount until my arrival.

With all good wishes and kind st regards,

Yours sincerely
